Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The parties discussed the detailed of the advisory action (mailed on 3/8/07). The language "instead the rounter is within the client" recited in the advisory action was not clear and causing the confusion to the Applicant's representative. The parties came to a solution that since the disclosure of the instant specificalton (see page 10, line 8 and the title of the specification) has described the "the router includes the client" as recited, for example in claim 1. Applicant's representative proposed that he will submit an amendment to the drawings to reflect claimed language and the examiner suggested to change the claimed language as "client is within the rounter". These proposed amendments would to overcome the 102 rejection by Butehorn's reference. Applicant's representative will follow up with an RCE instead of filing an appeal brief.
